

EMMA HAWORTH

SPRING

MONDAY 31 MARCH TO SATURDAY 3 MAY 2014

Balloon Fiesta (detail), 2014, oil on linen, 120 x 120 cms

'Haworth's rigorous structure recalls late-medieval, early-Renaissance compositions – think of Piero di Cosimo, for instance.... High praise, indeed, but not excessive, I think.'

FRANK WHITFORD, The Sunday Times art critic

SPRING is Emma Haworth's seventh solo exhibition at the Rebecca Hossack Art Gallery. It explores Haworth's fascination with the seasons, using oil on linen and watercolour. Haworth captures the particular vibrancy of that season, using a carefully chosen palette of blues and greens, and an observant eye.

Haworth has been working with the Rebecca Hossack Art Gallery for over twelve years. As well as exhibiting internationally, Haworth has also won prestigious prizes for her painting, including First Prize in The Sunday Times Watercolour Competition in 2010, and joint First Prize in The National Art Open in the same year.
