HEPZIBAH SWINFORD: FLOWERBOMB

11-28 OCT

REBECCA HOSSACK GALLERY, W1T

This London-based artist says it with flowers. Self-taught, Swinford paints intricate floral arrangements in a vibrant assault of colours – each canvas as immediate and eye-catching as the next. Her bounteous bouquets are set against patterned backdrops inspired by her material swatches, from William Morris to Raoul Dufy to the Bauhaus, and are displayed in pattern-rich vases, which also draw upon her collection of Ming and Meissen porcelain pieces. These are the most beautiful of colour and pattern clashes.
