March 1989 • £1

ART/LONDON '89, the fourth International Contemporary Art Fair at Olympia, promises displays from over 100 different galleries and museums. British galleries represented at the Fair include Marlborough, Waddington, Bernard Jacobson and Rebecca Hossack Gallery, one of whose artists, Ann Carrington (left) makes works from "found" objects. All work will be for sale. Art/London '89 will run for four days from 30th March to 2nd April.
