

HOT FROCKS SHOCK FROCKS

Janet Leigh

■ Still a gracious beauty, actress Janet Leigh was in sparkling form at a Beauty And The Beast charity night in Hollywood.

Alpha London

■ Far left: Liz Hurley, the new face of Estee Lauder, strikes a stunning pose at the BAFTA awards in London.

Alpha

Elizabeth Hurley

Joan Collins

■ More like a sister act . . . a seemingly ageless Joan Collins stilettoed off to the British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) awards with her daughter Tara for company. Mum chose the usual hip-hugging elegant gown, while Tara revealed similar curves but more flesh.

Profile Press

Raquel Welch

■ Another star who's been drinking from that cup of eternal youth . . . sleeky-in-satin Raquel Welch acknowledged fans as she arrived at the London Palladium for the BAFTA awards. The star's daring gown showed that she, too, has lost none of her famous curves.

Profile Press

Rebecca Hossack

■ Have I missed the encore? Australia's cultural attaché in London, Rebecca Hossack, looked theatrical in tulle at the London premiere of Muriel's Wedding.

Alpha/Scope Features

■ A far cry from the shaven head and drab look of the Alien movies . . . an elegant, oriental Sigourney Weaver was spotted in this eye-catching red jacket in New York. The actress was attending a function organised by Donald Trump's wife Marla Maples.

Alpha London

Sigourney Weaver

