RECEPTION AT AUSTRALIA HOUSE

Earlier in the evening before the London premiere of Muriel's Wedding, the Australian High Commissioner, HE The Hon Neal Blewett, and the Cultural Officer at the High Commission, Miss Rebecca Hossack, hosted a pink champagne reception in the Downer Room at Australia House in the Strand.

Prince and Princess Michael of Kent were the guests of honour and they had an opportunity to meet Toni Collette (who stars as Muriel in the film) and other members of the cast before attending the Royal Charity premiere, in aid of Survival International, at the Odeon in Leicester Square.
