

E L L E

DECORATION

CULT SHOPPING CARD

15% OFF
AT MUJI
AND MORE

SEPTEMBER 1996 £2.60

Don't miss

1 Rachel Whiteread – the first British retrospective of the artist famed for her lyrical resin and concrete casts of the spaces around, in or on, everyday objects such as fireplaces, mattresses and chairs. At the Tate Gallery, Albert Dock, Liverpool L3 4BB (0151 709 3223), from 14 Sept to 5 Jan 1997.

2 Fabulous frocks for girls and boys at Street Cred – an auction of funky fashion and jewellery from the 50s to 80s featuring the greats such as Biba (right) and Tommy Nutter. Prices start from an affordable £50. At Christie's, 85 Old Brompton Rd, SW7 (0171 581 7611), on 24 Sept.

3 Decorative Arts Today – a sale of recent work by 100 leading designers and artists, including ceramicist Rupert Spira (left). At Bonhams, Montpelier St, SW7 (0171 393 3900), 4-11 Sept.

4 Velázquez In Seville – a thoughtful show that includes some of his best-known paintings such as An Old Woman Cooking Eggs (below). At the National Gallery of Scotland, The Mound, Edinburgh EH2 2EL (0131 556 8921), until 20 Oct.

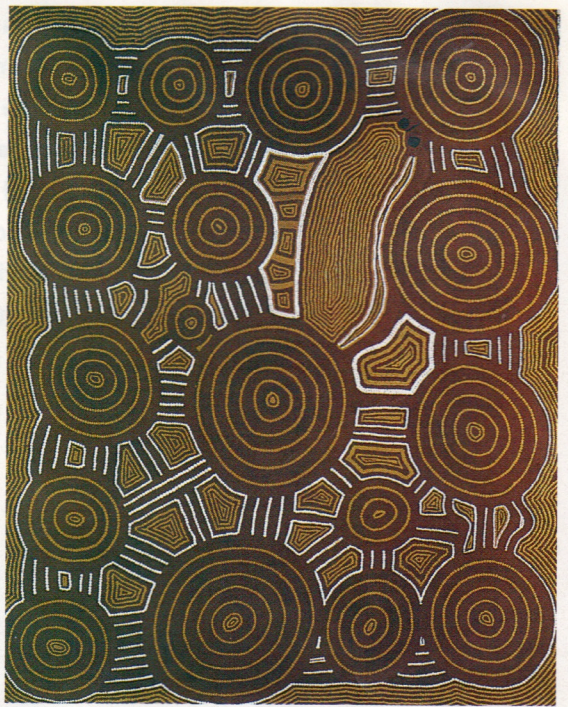

1

2

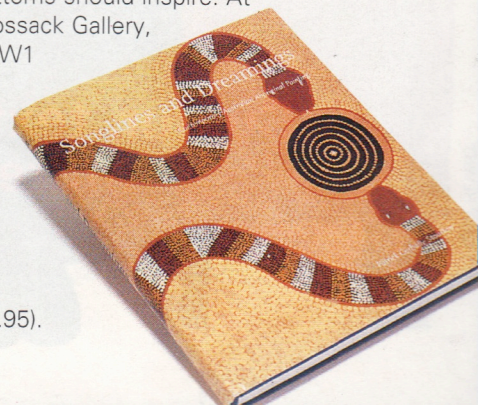

ANATJARI TUJAPUJIPA 'MYTHICAL CHARACTERS OF TINGARI DREAMING'

art SONGLINES SHOW

Our appreciation of contemporary Aboriginal art continues to go from strength to strength – largely thanks to the efforts of Rebecca Hossack who has spent the last eight years sourcing, showing and selling Aboriginal painting. If the complex iconography eludes you, the glorious colours, textures and patterns should inspire. At The Rebecca Hossack Gallery, 35 Windmill St, W1 (0171 436 4899), until 5 Oct. If you can't make the show, buy 'Songlines and Dreamings' by Patrick Corbally Stourton (Lund Humphries, £29.95).

3

4